NHH ARRIVAL AND SURVIVAL GUIDE

A guide for new students can be downloaded at: <https://www.nhh.no/en/for-students/new-student/>

STUDENT RESIDENCE PERMIT – WHO NEEDS ONE?

Norwegian authorities require that all foreign students have a student residence permit before their arrival in Norway. Students from EU countries are exempted from this rule and may apply for a student residence permit after arrival in Norway.

For more information, please see: <http://www.studyinnorway.no/study/Study-Norway/Student-residence-permit>

You can find the location of your local Norwegian embassy or consulate here: <http://www.norway.info/>

OTHER PROGRAMMES OFFERED AT NHH

NHH SUMMER SCHOOL

NHH offers the following three summer programs:

Intercultural Communication: A Nordic Perspective (undergraduate)

Social Entrepreneurship (graduate)

Natural Resource Management: The Norwegian Model (graduate).

The courses are open for bachelor, master, and MBA students from NHH's partner universities.

Applicants for the graduate courses should have completed an undergraduate degree and have at least one and a half years of previous study in business administration and economics (this includes subjects like statistics, mathematics, accounting, finance, computing, management, and marketing).

Application deadline: 15 March every year.

For more information about the NHH Summer School, please see:

<https://www.nhh.no/en/study-programmes/summer-school/>

MASTER PROGRAMMES

NHH offers a two-year MSc in Economics and Business Administration. It consists of eight distinct profiles, of which six are offered for international students:

- International Business
- Energy, Natural Resources and the Environment
- Marketing and Brand Management
- Finance
- Strategic Management
- Economics

For more information about the Master degree programmes, please see

<https://www.nhh.no/en/msc>

Application deadline: 15 February every year.

For more information please contact admission@nhh.no

Once enrolled in a Master programme at NHH you can apply to join the NHH CEMS Master's in International Management programme or the NHH Double Degree programme.

PHD PROGRAMME

For more information about the PhD programme at NHH, please see <https://www.nhh.no/en/study-programmes/phd-programme-at-nhh/>

CEMS AND DOUBLE DEGREE PROGRAMMES

If your school is part of the CEMS network or part of NHH's Double Degree network you can apply for a stay at NHH through your home school.

ACCOMODATION IN BERGEN

Housing is guaranteed for all exchange students from outside Europe. Due to limited availability in student housing provided by SiB - the student welfare organisation in Bergen – we cannot guarantee housing for European students. European students are more likely to receive housing in the spring than in the fall semester.

If you are offered housing through SiB, you will receive a personal reservation code from your coordinator at NHH to be used when applying for a room. The deadline for applying for accommodation through SiB is 15 May for the fall semester and 1 November for the spring semester.
